PHYSICAL THERAPY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

MISSOULA--

Five members of the University of Montana Physical Therapy Club are serving as officers for the current school year.

The club provides a means of communication and education for physical therapy students through organized programs and social functions.

The officers are: Gary Lusin, Fort Benton, president; Janice Gehrke, Kimball, Minn., vice-president; Cathy Sulentic, Deadwood, S.D., secretary-treasurer, and Colette Betts, Billings, historian. All are physical therapy majors.

Lusin, the son of Rudolph and Dixie Lusin, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and had an article published in the fall issue of "Athletic Training Journal."

Cathy Sulentic is the daughter of Joe and Margaret Sulentic.

Colette Betts, the daughter of Karl and Diana Betts, has received a Treacy Fund Scholarship for the last two years. She served as co-chairperson of the Muscular Dystrophy Superdance and represented Montana at the National Youth Conference for Muscular Dystrophy in 1979 and is currently serving as co-chairperson for this year's Superdance. Betts was also voted Most Outstanding Junior in Pre-Physical Therapy in 1979.
